Lockport Police Department and Lockport Township Fire Protection District Open Cooling Centers as High Temperatures Continue

Lockport, IL – As temperatures continue in the 90s and the feels like temperature approaches 100 degrees, the Lockport Police Department has designated their Community Room as a cooling station as needed for residents. Residents looking to utilize the Lockport Police Department are asked to please call the non-emergency number at (815) 838-2131 to speak with a member of the telecommunications staff so that the department can ensure that the facility is staffed.

The Lockport Township Fire Protection District's Station No. 6 Training Room is also available for the purposes of a cooling center during regular business hours, Monday through Friday from 8 a.m. to 3:30 p.m.
