Variance Application Plan & Zoning Commission Review

Last revised 2/13/18

APPLICATION REVIEW PROCESS—A SUMMARY

1. PRE-APPLICATION MEETING

Every applicant is encouraged to participate in a pre-application meeting to initiate the review process for each variance case. The pre-application meeting allows the applicant to familiarize themselves with the City's development objectives and procedures, and to learn about any special circumstances that may exist or be applicable to the subject property.

Staff conducts pre-application meetings are scheduled on each Tuesday morning. The request for pre-application meeting should be made to the City Planner not less than one (1) week prior to the desired date of the meeting. If the applicant has any site plan/plat of survey, maps, data, or other information which may be necessary to illustrate or describe the variance request, the applicant shall deliver such information to the City Planner (typically a minimum of eight (8) hard copies or electronically via email) no later than Wednesday afternoon before the scheduled meeting date. If this information is not received, the meeting may be cancelled.

2. STAFF REVIEW

The City Planner shall review each variance application and any accompanying drawings, supporting documentation and statements in order to determine whether such application is consistent with all City requirements. If the application is completed, the City Planner will then determine what meeting the applicant will be scheduled for.

If determined necessary by the City Planner, a review by the City's development engineering consultant may be completed to ensure compliance with approved grading for the lot and/or to verify that there are no conflicts with existing public utilities and/or drainage easements. Depending on the magnitude of any review, the applicant may be subject to additional review fees.

3. PLAN & ZONING COMMISSION REVIEW

Upon completion of the review of the application the City Planner shall prepare a staff report and recommendation based upon his/her evaluation of the variance request. The City Planner shall make the report, copies of the application and any drawings, statements, and a report of compliance or non-compliance available to the public and/or Plan and Zoning Commission. The Plan & Zoning Commission is responsible for interpreting the City's Zoning Code. The Commission can make recommendations to vary the requirements of the Zoning Ordinance. All decisions of the Plan & Zoning Commission are to be final administrative determinations, and shall be subject to review by a court of law in the manner by the applicable state statute. An applicant or their representative must be present at the scheduled meeting or their case will be postponed. Meeting Location: City Hall, 222 E. 9th Street, 3rd Floor Council Chambers, Lockport, Illinois 60441
